Submission and processing manual

☑ Visit the page Before you submit or Prepare to publish and download this manual

☐ Complete your work and submit your abstract for approval using the Editorial system or

☐ Complete your work and submit the entire submission form using the Editorial system with all required parts

> ☐ Cover letter (ENG)
> ☐ Manuscript (ENG)
> ☐ Author Bio and profile picture (both ENG and CZE*)
> ☐ Explanation for general audience (both ENG and CZE*)
> ☐ Supplementary materials (optional)

☐ Follow the comments from the assigned editor and edit your manuscript and other materials accordingly. Your contribution will be then sent for review. The usual review takes between 2 and 6 weeks. You will be informed about the completion of the review by email.

☐ Follow the comments and answer the questions (if any) raised from the reviewers. Your article can be at this stage accepted, accepted with minor/major revision, or rejected. Your review will be displayed in Editorial system. Make changes to the relevant files (manuscript, supplementary part,...) and upload them back into the system together with the author response letter. Please highlight the changes in the documents in red and describe them in your response to the reviewers. Templates are listed on the After review page.

☐ If all comments are incorporated, your article will be accepted. In the next step, you will receive a PDF for your submission. This has to be approved from you, usually within 48 hours. The pre-production version of the article will appear in As soon as publishable page.

☐ Once the entire issue is complete, the articles will be moved to the Articles page.
